

Weekly Writing - Week 1

Ronald Kanaski

31 August, 2025

1. What are my thoughts on Class being structured on solely using AI to code and focusing on other stuff or is learning about how to code more important.

I think Class should be learning about concepts than coding. Learning about concepts is interesting than code and is more useful since in the real world you probably will just use AI to help you.